

Quality Policy

We at Tata Housing are committed to customer delight by providing Best in class Quality Products & Services. We shall constantly improve our processes by adopting ethical practices & applicable regulatory requirements in delivering our product and services, so as to exceed customer expectations. We will always strive to achieve our objectives by adopting the first time right approach. We shall create a culture of continual improvement in the organization through engagement of motivated employees & deployment of world class systems and processes for sustainable development.

28th, January 2016

Brotrin Banerjee

Managing Director & CEO